2. The guest has the right to access the room from 3:00 pm on the agreed day of arrival.
3. If a full board or half board package has been agreed, the guest maintains the right to request suitable substitute meals (packed lunch) or a voucher for meals which he or she does not take, as long as the hotel has been notified in sufficient time, i.e. no later than 6:00 pm the previous day.
4. Otherwise the guest has no right to compensation for the service provided at Hotel Kitzhof, if he or she chooses not to take the agreed meals at the scheduled times, in the facilities specified for this purpose.

§ 8 Obligations of the guest

1. The agreed amount is to be paid at the end of the contractual period for the accommodation. Hotel Kitzhof does not accept foreign currency as payment, neither is the hotel obliged to accept non-cash payment methods such as cheques, credit cards, credit notes, vouchers, etc. Any costs incurred in accepting such methods of payment, e.g. telephone calls, etc., shall be borne by the guest.

3. Guests with electrical devices must obtain consent from the management of Hotel Kitzhof before using any electrical equipment, which is not considered part of the normal travel requirement.
4. In the event of damage caused by the guest, the provisions of the law regarding compensation for damage apply. The guest is therefore liable for any damage or disadvantage suffered by Hotel Kitzhof or third person(s) due to his or her fault or that of his or her companions, or any other persons for whom he or she is responsible. 2. In order to ensure Hotel Kitzhof receives the agreed payment, the hotel has the right of lien on the objects handed-in by the guest. (§ 1101 ABGB Right of Lien for hoteliers).
3. If service is requested either in a guest room or at unsociable hours, Hotel Kitzhof is entitled to add a surcharge for this service. Any such surcharge shall be listed with the room rates. Hotel Kitzhof may also refuse to provide these services for operational reasons.

§ 10 Obligations of Hotel Kitzhof

2. The listed prices are inclusive. All room rates are per person, per night.

§ 11 Hotel Kitzhof's liability of damage

1. Hotel Kitzhof is liable for damages suffered by the guest if the loss has been incurred in connection with the operation of the hotel, and the hotelier or his employees are at fault.
2. Liability for objects handed-in. Hotel Kitzhof is also liable as a depository for items handed-in by guests for safekeeping, for a maximum of € 1,100.00, unless the hotelier can prove that the loss was neither the fault of himself nor one of his employees, nor that it was caused by strangers entering or exiting the hotel. Under these circumstances, Hotel Kitzhof shall be liable for valuables, money and securities to a maximum of € 550.00, unless the hotelier is aware of the value when he takes it in for safekeeping or where the damage has been caused by himself or his employees, in which case he would be subject to unlimited liability. Notices displaying the rejection of liability have no legal effect. The hotel maintains the right to refuse the safekeeping of certain valuables, money or securities where this involves items of a significantly greater value than guests would normally surrender for safekeeping at the hotel.

Any agreement intended to reduce the liability below the values stated above is legally invalid. Items are deemed to be handed-in if they have been accepted by a member of staff of the hotel or have been brought to the desk designated by the hotel for such purpose. (§§ 970 ff. ABGB.)

§ 12 Pets

1. Guests who wish to extend their stay must seek the consent of Hotel Kitzhof.

§ 14 Ending of stay

1. If the accommodation contract has been agreed for a specified period, then the contract ends when the agreed period expires. Should the guest choose to depart early, the hotelier is entitled to request the full agreed booking price. However, Hotel Kitzhof is also obliged to take all appropriate steps to ensure that rooms left empty by the cancellation are rented to other guests, as far as circumstances allow. In addition, the provisions set out in § 5 (5) apply accordingly (percentage deductions).
2. The death of a guest effects the termination of the contract with Hotel Kitzhof.
3. If the accommodation contract has been agreed for an unspecified period, then either contracting party can end the agreement at any time by giving three days notice. The notice of termination of contract must reach the respective contracting party before 10:00 am, in order to be counted as the first day of the notice period, otherwise the notice period begins on the following day.
4. In the event where the guest does vacate his or her room by 12:00 pm, Hotel Kitzhof is entitled to invoice the guest for an additional night's stay.
5. Hotel Kitzhof is entitled to terminate the accommodation contract with immediate effect if the guest:
 - a. treats the room in a detrimental manner, or through his or her inconsiderate, objectionable or otherwise inappropriate behaviour, spoils the peaceful experience of the other guests, or is guilty of making threats against the staff, fellow guests or the property at Hotel Kitzhof, or is seen to endanger the moral values or the physical safety of the hotelier;
